

Renee Thompson,
DNP, RN

*CEO and Founder,
Healthy Workforce
Institute*

Join us for the 2026 Medallion Lecture as Renee Thompson, DNP, RN, CEO and Founder of the Healthy Workforce Institute, shares actionable steps to create a workplace where every nurse feels supported, valued and empowered to contribute to a culture of caring.

CENTER FOR PROFESSIONAL EXCELLENCE

Presents

Empowered, Caring, and Engaged: A Roadmap for Today's Nursing Workforce

2026 Medallion Lecture

You will learn to:

- Identify common ways workplace disruptive behaviors appear in health care.
- Describe four nurse-led initiatives that reduce conflict and foster teamwork.
- List five methods to model professionalism and create a culture of caring.

Tuesday, May 5, 2026 • noon-1 p.m.

LOCATION: Microsoft Teams

TARGET AUDIENCE: All nursing colleagues

REGISTER: jefferson-lehigh.cloud-cme.com/MedallionLecture

ACCREDITATION/DESIGNATION STATEMENTS

Registered Nurses: Lehigh Valley Health Network is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. Completion Criteria: Registered nurses attending the entire program will receive 1 Contact Hour.